

John Paul II's Theology of the Body

A Four Night Seminar

Approved by the Archdiocese of Philadelphia for one Catechetical Credit.

Monday July 27 through Thursday July 30
7:00 to 9:30 PM

Archbishop Wood High School
Street and York Roads, Warminster, PA

Who Should Attend?

All adults high school age or older who wish to learn more about John Paul II's incredible reflections on what God really intended for human love.

Teachers who want to earn a Catechetical Credit

What will be covered?

The Theology of the Body actually is a reflection on various scripture passages about what it means to be a human person and what God intended for the gift of human sexuality. This course will summarize these reflections.

Tuition: $35 if registered by July 15. $40 after July 15. Includes handouts. Make checks payable to "Our Lady of Mount Carmel Parish" and note "AFF TOB"

Registration: Call or email Dr. Mariette Danilo, Director of Adult Faith Formation, OLMC Parish (Doylestown). 215-348-1510 or mwdanilo@comcast.net

About the Instructor: Dr. Charles Dern holds a Ph.D in Moral Theology from The Catholic University of America where he wrote his doctoral thesis on Pope John Paul II. He currently is on the adjunct faculty for Immaculata University, where he teaches medical ethics, and St. Charles Borromeo Seminary's Graduate School of Religious Studies where he just completed teaching a full semester course on the Theology of the Body. He also has taught for Gwynedd Mercy College.
